

Who's on the Throne

Dark Country Gospel

Key Plan

Key: G Major (Capo 0, or Capo 2 for Key of A)

Tempo: Mid-tempo, heartfelt Dark Country Gospel feel

Verse 1

G

I built my own kingdom out of pride and dust

D

Said I didn't need a Savior, said I could be enough

Em

Pushed the true Creator clean off the seat

C

Put myself on the throne where only God should be

Verse 2

G

But the Word became flesh and walked this ground

D

Sinless Son of Man, yet heaven's King came down

Em

"I and the Father are one," He said with fire

C

The Mighty God of Isaiah, the Child we long required

Chorus

C G

So who's on the throne tonight?

D Em

Is it you, or the One who gave His life?

C G

He rode in low on a donkey's back

D G

Carried the weight of every broken track

C G

Come down from your throne, let the true King in

D G

Jesus is Lord — let the change begin

Verse 3

G

The Father, the Spirit, the Son in perfect light

D

One God, three Persons, the truth that sets us right

Em

He took the cross I earned, He rose to set me free
C
The same “I Am” who spoke before Abraham ever came to be Bridge
Em C
If you’ve been living for yourself,
G D
There’s still an open door
Em C
Just whisper, “Jesus, I believe...
G D
I can’t do this anymore”
Final Chorus
C G
So who’s on the throne tonight?
D Em
Is it you, or the One who gave His life?
C G
He rode in low on a donkey’s back
D G
Carried the weight of every broken track
C G
Come down from your throne, let the true King in
D G
Jesus is Lord — let the change begin
Outro
C G
Come down from your throne...
D G
Let the true King in.